

ADVENTIST CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

ADVENTIST CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES LOCAL CHURCH LEADER

JOB DESCRIPTION

WORKING CO-OPERATIVELY WITH OTHER MINISTRIES IN LOCAL CHURCH

Introduction: There is great value for Children's Ministries to work cooperatively with other ministries because of the many benefits it offers. Leaders can learn from each other as different individuals provide wider perspective on issues and ideas. There is also the cost-effective aspect when several ministries can share costs in running one program. Working together with other colleagues also allows the group to model a team approach in areas like supporting each other's committees, working from the same Biblical basis, etc.

Children's Ministries and Sabbath School

- Organize training events together as there are more people to help, more energy, and lower costs.
- Promote Sabbath School programs by using a unified approach.
- Use a team teaching approach for there is more power, it is more lively, and it has a wider appeal.
- Publish resources together provides more bargaining strength.
